Re: Whitley v. J.P. Morgan Chase & Co., et al., No. 12-cv-2548-VSB
Knee v. J.P. Morgan Retirement Plan Services, LLC et al., No. 13-cv-6337-VSB
Evans, et al v. JP Morgan Chase Bank, N.A., Case No. 1:14-cv-02276-VSB
Stolwyk, et al v. JP Morgan Chase Bank, N.A., Case No. 1:14-cv-02273-VSB

Dear Judge Broderick:

Counsel representing the Plaintiffs in these cases jointly writes to inform the Court of their intention to withdraw their respective oppositions to the J.P.Morgan Defendants' ("JPM Defendants") Motion for Consolidation, DKT #130. Plaintiffs' counsel for the above referenced cases have been in discussions with counsel for JPM Defendants concerning a schedule for filing a consolidated complaint in the above captioned cases. The discussion also covers two other JPM stable value cases that were recently electronically transferred to the Southern District of New York from Missouri, Adams et al v. J.P. Morgan Retirement Plan Services, LLC et al, No. 13-cv-00802 and Ashurst et al v. J.P. Morgan Retirement Plan Services, LLC et al, No. 13-cv-00803. (See Attachments A and B)

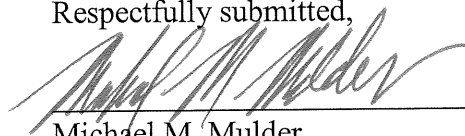

Under the proposed schedule Plaintiffs' counsel will file a Consolidated Class Action Complaint concerning all six cases mentioned herein, no later than October 24, 2014. Simultaneously with that filing, Plaintiffs will withdraw their respective oppositions to the JPM Defendants' Motion to Consolidate and Defendants will agree to a dismissal without prejudice of certain named plaintiffs in the Evans, Adams and Ashurst cases with each party to bear its own costs. No later than two weeks after the filing of the Consolidated Complaint Plaintiffs and Defendants will advise the Court of whether they have been able to agree upon a proposed scheduling order for the consolidated matter. The parties stipulate that the timeframe for the JPM Defendants to answer the second amended complaints filed on September 5, 2014, in
